

Celebrity International Movers Recognized at Top Industry Conference

Hundreds of International Delegates Participated in the 62nd Annual FIDI Conference in Athens

27 May 2013 (Athens, Greece) – Greece’s top global moving and relocation company, Celebrity International Movers S.A., was recognized at an international industry moving conference which took place in Athens. Celebrity is one of the few Greek companies that has been a long standing member of FIDI, Fédération Internationale des Déménageurs Internationaux, which is the largest global alliance of independent quality international removal and relocation companies.

Industry Quality in Greece

More than 600 international delegates attended the 62nd annual conference held this year at the Divani Apollon Resort in Vouliagmeni. FIDI members all must pass the most stringent quality program in the industry to be FIDI FAIM certified. Celebrity earned an ever higher distinction, FAIM PLUS, in 1997 from Ernst and Young in Belgium after it passed the 200 defined quality requirements that targeted around operations and customer service.

“The conference proved to be a great success helping us to strengthen industry relationships and make new ones,” said Kathy Chrisovergis, managing director of Celebrity International Movers, S.A. “Even though times are tough in Greece, there is a need for top quality services and our worldwide partners need to guarantee that kind of service when they relocate their clients to Greece.”

Showcasing Greece

To showcase the beauty of Greece and Greece’s famous hospitality, Celebrity co-hosted a Mediterranean Night Event with several other FIDI Mediterranean country delegate companies. Celebrity also hosted its own event called “A Mythical Greek Night of Sea and Stars” in Microlimano, Piraeus to welcome their long standing agents.

The company also helped organize a scenic 50 km bike ride along the sea road to Cape Sounion. The event finished with a tour of the ancient Temple of Poseidon.

“The conference was also an opportunity to showcase Athens and Greece to our international colleagues and partners,” added Chrisovergis. “They were truly impressed by Greece’s beauty and culture with the intention to return again. That’s great for our industry and for tourism in Greece.”
