

Grospiron Relocation Services achieves the EuRA Quality Seal re-certification

In June, 2010 Grospiron received the first EuRA Quality Seal certificate. On August, 2012 Grospiron was re-audited, by an independent quality auditor, and is proud to announce that they have received the EuRA Quality Seal for the second time!

Grospiron started with this vision and objective and is now not only certified EuRA Quality Seal but ISO 9001, ISO 14001 and ISO 27001. So, this is the guaranty of a successful service delivery as certifies says "controlled", "processes" and "audits".

Dominik Tidey, EuRA Operations Manager, explains the benefits of the EuRA Quality seal for the providers and their customers: "Having an external validation of excellence is another way in which the EuRA Quality Seal opens doors and sets a measurable benchmark for successful companies. This pioneering initiative provides a straight forward, cost effective external audit to reflect our members' excellence in providing relocation services. The benefits of being externally quality audited are well proven, and partnering with both European and Global ISO auditors, gives the EuRA Quality Seal an unbeatable pedigree."

Celebrity moves for a good cause

Organizers of the largest holiday charity event in Athens recognized Celebrity International Movers for their volunteer efforts during the economic crisis in Greece. Celebrity helped the non-profit American Women's Organization of Greece (AWOG) raise more than 17,500 Euros at their annual Christmas Bazaar.

Managing director, Kathy Chrisovergis and sales and pr manager, Marissa Tejada, both AWOG members, organized the movement of truckloads of homemade crafts, books, decorations, equipment as well as boxes of donated products from corporate sponsors. AWOG recognized Celebrity as one of the top platinum sponsors. Celebrity was the only Greek moving company to donate time and manpower to the event which is the longest running charity Christmas fair in Athens.
